

Vision33

Get back to brewing.

End-to-end brewery management software

Your passion for brewing has produced a vibrant, growing business—but if you're mired in inefficient processes and time-consuming administrative work, you've probably outgrown the basic accounting apps and spreadsheets you rely on to run your business.

But now there's Brutos.

Brutos by Vision33 is a cloud-based, end-to-end business management software for brewers who want to scale and centralise business operations. It delivers 360-degree visibility, unrivaled efficiency, and complete control over your business.

Brutos brings critical brewery management and back-office functions—like production, brand management, inventory, and finance—into an easy-to-use cloud-based solution with anytime, anywhere access.

Brutos harnesses the power of SAP Business One, a best-in-class business management solution trusted by growing businesses worldwide.

Say goodbye to a patchwork of spreadsheets and apps, and “cheers”
to a unified view of your business.

REDUCE WASTE

Use improved insights to gain inventory efficiency and reduce ingredient and product spoilage/expiration.

IMPROVE DECISION-MAKING

Centralised data, dashboards, and real-time reports eliminate data silos and provide 360-degree visibility into financial and operational health so you can make confident decisions.

RESPOND FASTER

Quickly adapt and respond to changing market demands, including traceability, regulatory compliance, and risk, with on-demand access to reports.

STREAMLINE OPERATIONS

Digitise, automate, and track processes, work flows, and data to streamline daily operations, accelerate production cycles, and close efficiency gaps within and across teams.

OPTIMISE CONTROL

Key performance indicators, rules, and alerts help you stay on top of critical metrics like inventory levels, production costs, and profit margins in real-time.

FACILITATE COLLABORATION

Interactive, browser-based dashboards keep teams in sync and brewery operations moving full steam ahead.

How Is Brutos Different?

Brutos is designed specifically for brewers by business process experts. It combines back-office and brewery management capabilities on a single platform, centralising data from across your business and uniting your team for unbeatable efficiency.

The Value of Brutos

With business data at your fingertips, you'll be primed to drive growth and scale effortlessly.
